

A Selection of Study Skills Resources

Journal Articles:

Academic skills: using literature to support your discussion
by Kerri Wright, Paul Street, Mamood Gousy

British Journal of Nursing. 2011, Vol 20, No. 2, pp101-106

Simple writing skills for students, Part 1: structure and clarity
by Kerri Wright

British Journal of Nursing. 2010, Vol 19, No.11, pp709-711

Simple writing skills for students, Part 2: researching your subject by Kerri Wright, Terry Ferns

British Journal of Nursing. 2010, Vol 19, No.11, pp709-711

Full text available via <https://www.nice.org.uk/about/what-we-do/evidence-services/journals-and-databases> with NHS OpenAthens password.

Open Learning:

Essay and Report Writing Skills

<http://www.open.edu/openlearn/education/essay-and-report-writing-skills/content-section-0>

A sample of books available to borrow

- Bailliere's study skills for nurses: Sian Maslin-Prothero
- Cite them right: the essential referencing guide: Richard Pears
- How to do your research project, a guide for students of medicine and the health sciences: Caroline Beardsmore
- How to read a paper, the basics of evidence-based medicine: Tricia Greenhalgh
- Succeeding in your medical degree: Simon Watmough
- The study skills handbook: Sheila Cottrell
- Writing for nursing and midwifery students: Julio Gimenez

Critical Appraisal

CASP (Critical Appraisal Skills Programme) Checklists

<http://www.casp-uk.net/checklists>